In conducting such transactions and adhering to these procedures, the Executive Director may delegate certain responsibilities to a designee, subject to the approval of the FGFOA Secretary-Treasurer. The Executive Director shall assure that reasonable and necessary internal controls are in place for the protection and surety of all monies of the FGFOA, and that such internal controls are continually applied and observed.

The Executive Director shall open one or more bank accounts (hereinafter referred to as “the accounts”) for the transaction of all FGFOA financial activity.

Receipts

The Executive Director shall be responsible for invoicing, receiving, and depositing all monies and credit card receipts due and payable to the FGFOA. Such monies shall, upon receipt, be temporarily placed in safekeeping by the Executive Director until such time as funds are deposited in the accounts. The Executive Director shall make such deposits not less than weekly.

Disbursements

All invoices and other evidences of amounts due and payable by the FGFOA shall be forwarded to the Executive Director, who shall be responsible for issuing and disbursing all payments due by the FGFOA from the account.

The Executive Director shall review requests for payment and make a determination as to whether such payments are in keeping with the adopted FGFOA budget or, if not, they have been properly authorized by other FGFOA Board action.

If the Executive Director cannot determine that the payment is properly authorized, the Secretary-Treasurer shall be contacted and said Officer shall authorize or refuse payment. If the Secretary-Treasurer is unavailable, the Executive Director shall contact another Officer for such authority.

For any payment to be made to the Administrator, the Executive Director shall forward all supporting documentation to the Secretary-Treasurer, or in the event that the Secretary-

Treasurer is unavailable, to another Officer, who shall review such supporting documentation and, upon agreement with the validity of such payment, provide written authorization to pay the amount due via ACH or direct account transfer. Written authorization can be via mail, email or fax.

The Executive Director shall maintain a balance in the account sufficient to meet the cash flow needs of the FGFOA, and to take best financial advantage of the contractual parameters of the account agreement with the financial institution. However, the balance shall not exceed amount of the FDIC Insurance limits unless an immediate payment is pending. Any amounts in excess of the balance needed as determined above shall be invested in accordance with the FGFOA Statement of Investment Policy.

Records and Reports

The Executive Director shall keep and maintain such records and ledgers necessary to identify and track all receipts and disbursements of the FGFOA. Such records shall immediately be made available to any Officer, member of the Board of Directors, or independent auditor authorized by the Board for review upon request.

Upon request, the Executive Director shall, no later than the last day of each month, provide the Secretary-Treasurer with a copy of such ledgers for the immediately preceding month. The Secretary-Treasurer shall review such ledgers and determine that all transactions have been done satisfactorily and are in keeping with FGFOA Board direction. Should the Secretary-Treasurer have concern that any activity is not in keeping with FGFOA Board direction, said Officer shall immediately attempt to resolve such concerns with the Executive Director. Should the Secretary-Treasurer not be able to resolve such concerns with the Executive Director, said Officer shall immediately contact the other Officers, who shall jointly determine the appropriate actions.

No later than forty-five (45) days after the end of each quarter, the Executive Director shall prepare a Statement of Revenues, Expenditures, and Changes in Fund Balance, a Comparative Balance Sheet, and a Bank Transaction Ledger for that quarter, and forward such reports to the Secretary-Treasurer for review and approval.
