

FGFOA Speaker and Expenses Policy

As of 09/05/2003

The Florida Government Finance Officers Association does not pay for speakers. The Florida Government Finance Officers Association may pay fees or travel expenses for speakers at the annual conference, school of governmental finance or career seminars when one of the following conditions applies and the fee or expense is approved by the board officers in advance of the event:

- 1. Speaker is a “signature speaker.” A “signature speaker” is someone with a national or regional stature or can provide a service or perspective that is not otherwise readily available.
- 2. Circumstances dictate that expenses be paid to accomplish a specific goal.
