

Environmental Technician – City of Sebastian – Responsible for environmental planning, water quality sampling and testing, field site inspections and recordkeeping; Maintains the City’s stormwater system per Florida Notice of Intent; Responsible for construction projects conducts tree, land clearing and erosion control inspections for issuance of permits; Assists in development , implementation and monitoring of assigned environmental programs and program elements or projects; enforces federal, state, and local environmental regulations applying them to engineering and planning; knowledge of land use instruments using geographical information system (GIS) program, and symbols used in mapping, property descriptions and other graphic materials; Knowledge of Computer aid design (CAD) or AutoCAD; Grant writing experience a plus. BS Degree Environmental /Engineering Sciences. Please go to www.cityofsebastian.org for further details.