

LEADERSHIP FGFOA CLASS OF 2017

April 2-7, 2017

Orlando

A leader is someone with a vision who is transparent, accountable, inspirational, offers guidance and acts as a role model.

... by Helena, Jeanette, Andre, Cheryl, + Marcella ☺

Leadership is :

The ability to inspire & motivate through vision & direction; to encourage staff to reach their full potential & inspiring trust in others

Followers

Taking Notes

Ask Questions

Listeners

Buy in

Take Ownership

Open + Motivated

Team Player

Trust in the Leader

Offer constructive criticism

Shared Vision

Resilience

Positive Attitude

Confidence

Good Foundation

Have a purpose

Suggest ideas

+ Solutions

Leadership is being accountable for the actions you take, inspiring others to commit to the organization's vision, and while being selfless and determined.

Leadership FGFOA Class of 2017

Amal Ali, Hillsborough County CCC

Brett Allmond, Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller

Helena Alves, City of Palm Coast

Linda Benoit, Pinellas County Office of Management & Budget

Ryan Bernal, Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office

Jacqueline Cook, Brevard County Clerk of Courts

Lynn De La Torre, Juvenile Welfare Board

Jennifer Desrosiers, City of North Port

Marcella Eubanks, Okaloosa County Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller

Yeimy Guzman, City of Dania Beach

Lori Hill, City of Holmes Beach

Robyn Lawrence, City of Jacksonville

Jennifer Linoras, Village Center CDD

Andre McAden, City of Delray Beach

Cheryl Miller, City of Palmetto

Tameka Otto Stewart, City of Miami Beach

Daniel Risola, Pasco County Board of County Commissioners

Meridy Semones, City of Largo

Jeanette Haynes, City of West Palm Beach

Shannon Lafon, Sarasota County