

PRIVACY AND SECURITY NOTICE

The Florida Government Finance Officers Association is committed to protecting online users' privacy. Our privacy policy is simple: we do not collect personal information about you unless you choose to provide it to us. We do automatically collect statistical information as described below but only to assist us in improving this site. We do not share any personal information gathered on this web-site with other agencies or persons unless required by law, create personal profiles or provide personal information to private organizations, collect and/or sell personal information for commercial marketing.

Information We Collect

If you only browse our web-site or download data, some information may be collected automatically. This information will not identify you personally. It is used only to improve this site by telling us the number of visitors and the types of browser and operating system our visitors are using. The following information may collect each time someone visits our site:

- The Internet domain name (examples: aol.com or foxinternet.net) from which you access our site. This is not your Internet address.
- The IP address from which you connected to our site. The Internet Protocol address is a number assigned to your computer or provided by your Internet Service Provider whenever you browse the Internet. We use this address to send data you request back to you.
- The type of browser you used to visit our site.
- The type of operating system you used.
- The date and time you visit our site.
- The specific pages you visit at our site.
- If you linked to our site from another web site, the address of that site.

About Your Personal Information

If you send us an electronic mail message with a question or comment that contains personally identifying information, or fill out a form that e-mails us information, we will only use the personally identifiable information to respond to your request and to analyze trends. We may redirect your message to another person in our organization that is a better position to answer your question. In some cases, you may choose to provide us personal information. Information that consists of items such as name, address, or phone number will be used only for the purpose for which it is intended.

Security of the Florida Governmental Finance Officers Association Site

The Florida Government Finance Officers Association and its Administrator have taken steps to safeguard the information on this site. These security measures are taken as a part of the implementation of all software and hardware infrastructure in order to mitigate risk. The Florida Government Finance Officers Association, however, cannot warrant as fail proof the security of information collected or provided via this web-site. Unauthorized attempts to change information on this site or upload information are strictly prohibited.

When You Link to Another Site
