

Public Sector CPA Resources: The Current Landscape and Recommendations for the Future

The AICPA and the NASACT recently published the report below titled: *Public Sector CPA Resources: The Current Landscape and Recommendations for the Future*. The report was prepared by a joint working group of key stakeholders whose charge was to address the most important factors in hiring CPAs to work in state and local government entities and finding qualified CPA firms to audit those entities.

This report is relevant to our members as it provides insight into some of the causes of talent shortage in the public sector, specific to hiring and retaining CPAs, and the challenges related to hiring an external auditor from both the auditor and auditee perspective.
